

The Autism Society of Ventura County

Presents

Encountering Autism While On Duty First Responder Training*

Learn how to recognize difficulties with communication, address behavioral concerns and interact with individuals with autism while on duty.

As part of the presentation, individuals on the Autism spectrum will be present to provide a few, limited, examples of behaviors and communication issues that may be presented by individuals with Autism in emergency situations.

The presenter, Brian Herritt, is a Consultant for Autism Risk and Safety Management and a police officer with a Southern California agency. Officer Herritt is also the father of a non-verbal child with Autism.

Thursday, March 1, 2012

TIME: 8am - Noon

This course is approved for 4 hours of ALS/BLS continuing education credit through the Ventura County EMS Agency (CE Provider ID # 56-0001).

Join us for this informative FREE conference.

To RSVP please email us at RSVP@autismventura.org. Please indicate the number of seats you need. Space is limited so RSVP today!

Donations to ASVC are welcome. To donate please visit our website www.autismventura.org or call 805-496-1632.

Event Location: Ventura County Office of Education Conference Center

5100 Adolfo Road
Camarillo, California 93012

Please call the Autism Society of Ventura County with any questions at (805) 496-1632

www.autismventura.org